

Communications + Outreach Internship

As the Communications + Outreach Intern, you will help to establish new partnerships and ensure that the public face of WEA is just as engaging as the work itself. Arguably the most dynamic position at WEA, you'll maintain and build upon our brand identity with integrity, inviting people to be a part of our community and spark an impact with us.

Who We Are:

WEA equips women with the skills and tools they need to protect our earth and strengthen communities from the inside out. We work with local leaders who build up other leaders. Our partners are saving indigenous seeds, planting native trees, selling solar cookers, launching sustainable farms, providing safe water, building composting toilets, protecting land rights, and preserving traditional knowledge in some of the most threatened places on earth.

The Internship:

- ❖ You'll explore opportunities for WEA to broaden our brand partnerships, outreaching to potential businesses, brands and content creators whose work and missions align with ours, and establishing mutually beneficial relationships. These partnerships could include funding sponsorships, joint campaigns, co-branded merchandise, in-kind giving, media, etc.
- ❖ You'll learn the ins and outs of WEA's Communication Strategy to ensure the seamless continuation of WEA's "voice" throughout our media and communications. You'll support the finalization of this Communication Strategy, as well as WEA's Style Guide and Business Sponsorships Guide.
- ❖ You'll support content creation for our social media channels, including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, with an aim towards promoting awareness of issues and our grassroots partnerships, increasing WEA's followers and supporters, and establishing WEA as a thought-leader and information hub on the intersection of women's and environmental issues.
- ❖ You'll proactively outreach to relevant content creators and media outlets for opportunities to engage with them through guest blogging, interviews, panel discussions, events, etc.

- ❖ You'll help WEA to better understand our social media reach and impact by distilling our analytics and sharing it with the team. Where opportunities for improvement present itself, you'll propose changes, solutions, and areas for growth.
- ❖ You'll attend WEA events to support the team with live posting and tweeting, and to help build the WEA community through your enthusiasm for the work our partners are engaged in. Because our partners are amazing.

Who You Are:

Your attention to detail is out of this world.

You're a stickler for details, and you're not sorry about it. You have a meticulous and thorough nature when it comes to your work, and you're not afraid to double-check things to ensure our accuracy and integrity.

You're not too shy to ask for something awesome.

You love crafting a pitch, and you're not afraid to reach out and ask businesses, brands and content creators for opportunities to partner and collaborate because you trust your enthusiasm, clear communication, and this powerful work to speak for itself.

You're super comfortable with social media and all the other usual programs.

You have a firm grasp of the digital media landscape, particularly with using social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, blogs, LinkedIn) for nonprofits. You also have a strong familiarity with Excel, Word, using Google Docs and Spreadsheets, Gmail, and you're an internet research pro. When you're unfamiliar with a program, your first inclination is to learn it. When the usual software is unavailable, your first inclination is to find an alternative that suits your/our needs.

Outreach and engagement is your jam.

The thought of helping WEA strategize, streamline, and increase our reach and partnerships delights you to no end, and you have some creative ideas on how to do just that. You are always excited to figure out how to keep brands and outreach fresh and engaging.

You have impeccable written and verbal communication skills.

You're a skilled writer and enjoy developing engaging messaging. Your grammar is top-notch, and you can clearly and respectfully articulate your questions, needs and thoughts. You have a deep willingness to grow your cultural competency skills to ensure positive interactions with our diverse community.

You're independent and love to take initiative.

You love working as part of a team, but you're also just as equally comfortable (and happy) taking a project and owning it. You're extremely capable and self-motivated, but you're self-aware enough to ask those important clarifying questions and receive constructive feedback. You understand that every task is a learning opportunity, and you learn best by trying.

You have a fierce commitment to supporting the women who support the earth.

You and WEA? You're soul sisters + brothers. Your visions align and your missions uplift one another. You may not have an extensive background (yet) on the issues grassroots women environmental leaders face, but this is your passion work, your calling. You're ready to roll up your sleeves and jump right in.

Commitment:

This internship is available starting September 2021 and lasts a minimum of 7 months – though we love it when awesome people want to stay and be awesome for longer, so let us know if you're available for a longer opportunity.

The Communications + Outreach Intern must be available at least 16 hours a week. Due to COVID-19, all our internships are remote for the foreseeable future.

Compensation:

This is an unpaid internship, but is a unique opportunity to learn and grow with a small women-led organization with a large, global impact. We are happy to work with interns hoping to receive academic credit for their time with us, though you do not have to be a student to apply.
