

Communications & Storytelling Internship

Who We Are:

WEA equips women with the skills and tools they need to protect our earth and strengthen communities from the inside out. We work with local leaders who build up other leaders. Our partners are saving indigenous seeds, planting native trees, selling solar cookers, launching sustainable farms, providing safe water, building composting toilets, protecting land rights, and preserving traditional knowledge in some of the most threatened places on earth.

The Internship:

The purpose of this educational internship is for Intern to learn about global climate crisis and environmental justice issues, and the different types of grassroots solutions arising from women's leadership.

- ❖ You have superb writing skills, with the ability to weave together creativity and research into powerful narratives.
- ❖ Your attention to detail is out of this world. You don't ever skip the step of double-checking.
- ❖ You're comfortable with computers and all the usual programs or are willing to learn new skills.
- ❖ You're independent and love to take initiative. If you think there's a more efficient or effective way of doing something, you're not afraid to make an informed suggestion.
- ❖ You're a multi-tasking, deadline-driven aficionado.
- ❖ You have a fierce commitment to supporting the women who support the earth.

Skills You Will Gain:

Specific skills gained include:

- ❖ Project management skills

- ❖ Research, writing and presentation skills
- ❖ Social media content, strategy and design
- ❖ Graphic design using Canva

Commitment:

This internship is expected to last at least 8 months – though we love it when awesome people want to stay and be awesome for longer, so let us know if you're available for a longer opportunity.

The Communications & Storytelling Intern must be available at least 20 hours a week. Due to COVID-19, all our internships are remote for the foreseeable future.

Compensation:

Interns receive a $2,000 stipend for 4 months. This is a unique opportunity to be part of and grow with a small women-led organization with a large, global impact. We are also happy to work with interns hoping to receive academic credit for their time with us, though you do not have to be a student to apply.

To Apply:

To apply, please go to Join our Team on our website [<https://womensearthalliance.org/about-us/join-our-team/>] to submit your application. WEA welcomes interns from diverse gender, educational, socio-economic, racial and cultural backgrounds.